Safeguarding Customer Information

In order to better serve your needs now and in the future, we may ask you to provide us with certain information. We understand that you may be concerned about what we will do with such information - particularly any personal or financial information. We agree that you have a right to know how we will utilize the personal information you provide to us. Therefore, we have adopted this Privacy Policy to govern the use and handling of your personal information.

This Privacy Policy governs our use of the information that you provide to us. It does not govern the manner in which we may use information we have obtained from any other source, such as information obtained from a public record or from another person or entity.

Types of Information

The types of nonpublic personal information that we may collect include:

- Information we receive from you on applications, forms and in other communications to us, whether in writing, in person, by telephone or any other means;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliated companies, or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

Use of Information

We request information from you for our own legitimate business purposes and not for the benefit of any nonaffiliated party. Therefore, we will not release your information to nonaffiliated parties except: (1) as necessary for us to provide the product or service you have requested of us; or (2) as permitted by law. We may, however, store such information indefinitely, including the period after which any customer relationship has ceased. Such information may be used for any internal purpose, such as quality control efforts or customer analysis. We may also provide all of the types of nonpublic personal information listed above to our affiliated lending partner AuburnBank Bank. Furthermore, we may also provide all the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf, on behalf of our affiliated companies or to other financial institutions with which we or our affiliated companies have joint marketing agreements.

In connection with accepting applications for AT loans, the Foundation agrees to (a) provide each applicant with a copy of the Foundation's privacy policy; (b) obtain from each applicant express written authorization, compliant with the requirements of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, for the Foundation and AuburnBank to share nonpublic personal information provided by the applicant in the application or otherwise and information obtained by the Foundation and/or AuburnBank in connection with the review of such applications and the servicing of any AT loan request, including, but not limited to, so-called Beacon Scores and other information provided by consumer credit reporting agencies, and information concerning the payment status and activity of any AT loan; and (c) obtain from each applicant express written authorization for AuburnBank to deliver to the Foundation copies of correspondence and other written communications sent to the applicant. AuburnBank and the Foundation understand and agree that Region's privacy policy will be provided to approved AT loan applicants with the loan closing documents.

Confidentiality and Security

We will use our best efforts to ensure that no unauthorized parties have access to any of your information. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those individuals and entities who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We will use our best efforts to train and oversee our employees and agents to ensure that your information will be handled responsibly and in accordance with this Privacy Policy. We currently maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

My signature serves as written authorization for Southern Disability Foundation and AuburnBank Bank to share my nonpublic personal information.
